

Daughters Of The Desert: Stories Of Remarkable Women From Christian, Jewish, And Muslim Traditions

How would the most cherished stories of Christianity, Judaism, and Islam be different if women were the active central figures? This ground-breaking collection of short stories brings to life the womendaring, brave, thoughtful, and wisewho played important and exciting roles in the early days of Judaism, Christianity, and Islam. Join Esther as she stands against injustice and her king to save her people, Aisha as she leads hundreds of men into terrifying battle, and Mary as she and Elizabeth dream of the new lives growing inside them. How must Sarah have felt, turning Hagar out into the desert? And how must Hagar have felt, traveling from the safety and security of Abrahams land toward an uncertain future? These stories invite us to come to know and appreciate the struggles and triumphs of these womenmothers, daughters, believers and seekers.
