

The Dedication. Your firm attachment to Virtue AND Liberty will not allow Your Lordship to employ the I word (designing against immorality which disturbs the civil peace) for punishing, in the least degree, disbelievers of the Christian doctrine, or any part of it. Every one ought to judge for himself in Affairs of Conscience and eternal Salvation, and hath a right to publish his sentiments to the world; though it were to be wished, when they do write any thing out of the common way of Thinking, they would do it with good manners, and not say things needlessly shocking. For the sake of the argument. (Typographical errors above are due to OCR software and do not occur in the book.)
