

Federal Reinterpretation Of Contracting Rules Threatens Current County-Based Mental Health Systems In Washington & Pennsylvania (OPEN MINDS Weekly News Wire Book 2013)

On July 5, 2013, the federal Centers for Medicaid & Medicare Services (CMS) informed the State of Washington Health Care Authority (HCA) and the Pennsylvania Department of Public Welfare (DPW) that the way the states contract for managed Medicaid behavioral health services violates federal procurement laws. The issue is that both states offered counties the first right of refusal to administer the managed behavioral health services, opting out of a competitive procurement for the services...
