

The Little Book of Vuillard

This newest addition to the Little Book series publishes to coincide with a major Vuillard retrospective opening at the National Museum, Washington D.C. mid-January 2003. The exhibit travels to Montreal in the Spring and then to Europe. In The Little Book of Vuillard (1868-1940) we have the authority of French curators, a full color interior and just the right balance of criticism in the text and sheer enjoyment in the reproductions. One of the great Post-Impressionist artists, Vuillard is known for his sensitive palette of colors and delicate interior scenes that make his paintings very accessible.
