

The Destructive Power of Religion: Violence in Judaism, Christianity, and Islam, Vol. 1 (Contemporary Psychology (Praeger Publishers).)

Volume 1: Sacred Scriptures, Ideology, and Violence. Dozens of studies by 30 senior experts from five nations examine the influence of sacred texts in shaping human nature, society, and political and military strategies in the Western world for over 3000 years. The contributors explain how Judaism, Christianity, and Islam all incorporate core metaphors of the ancient Israelite notion that history and the human soul are caught in a cosmic conflict which cannot be resolved without violence. This notion is internalized in the Western psyche and collective unconscious.
